

Verb Worksheet by GrammarGramps

Name

Roll #/Reg #

Date

Question 1: Underline the main verb in each sentence.

- a) Jack tripped over a loose wire on his way to work.
- b) A can of yams fell from the shelf and hit Jack.
- c) Jack laughed even though the situation hurt.
- d) The crowd stared as Jack stood up slowly
- e) Jack learned to avoid the canned-food aisle.

Question 2: Choose the verb that correctly completes each sentence.

- a) Jack ___ the warning sign too late. (read / reads)
- b) A mysterious can of yams ___ from nowhere. (appear / appeared)
- c) Jack ___ his dignity after the incident. (lose / lost)
- d) The manager ___ Jack an apology. (give / gave)
- e) Jack ___ home with a new life lesson. (walk / walked)

Question 3: Use the correct form of the verb in parentheses. I have written the base form of the verb in the parentheses but you have to choose which specific form fits the blank.

- b) The can of yams ___ directly at Jack's head. (aim)
- c) Jack ___ the story many times since then. (tell)
- d) Everyone ___ as Jack stood up. (gasp)
- e) Jack ___ to wear a helmet next time. (decide)

Question 4: Rewrite each sentence by changing the verb tense as directed.

- a) Jack trips over a cable. (Change to past tense)
- b) The can hits Jack unexpectedly. (Change to past tense)
- c) Jack laughed at himself. (Change to present tense)
- d) People stare at Jack. (Change to past tense)
- e) Jack learns from mistakes. (Change to past tense)

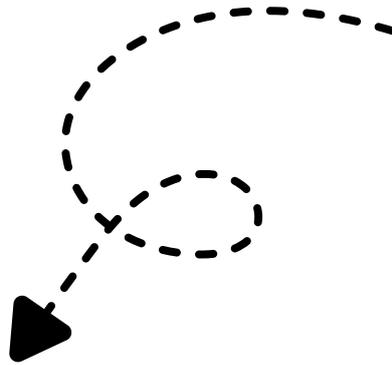

Write the answers below:

Question 5: Identify whether the verb is action or linking. Just scribble "A" or "L" in front of each.

- a) Jack felt embarrassed.
- b) The can struck Jack hard.
- d) The crowd remained silent.
- e) Jack dodged the second can.

Question 6: Identify whether each sentence is written in active or passive voice.

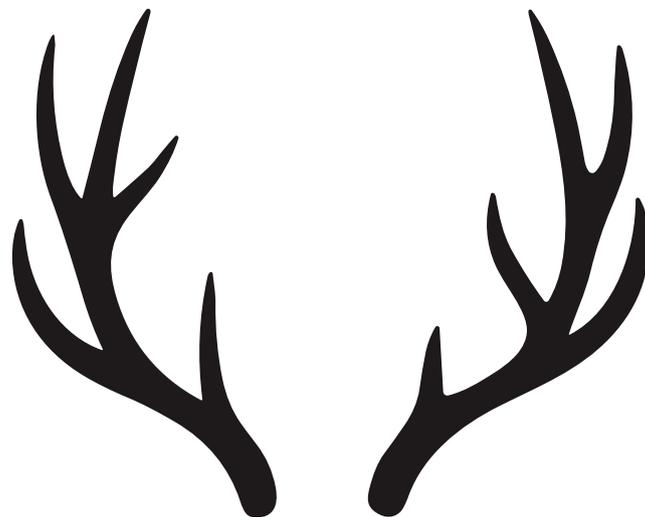

- a) The wild deer chased Jack through the parking lot.
- b) Jack was knocked over by the charging deer.
- c) The groceries were scattered by the startled animal.
- d) Jack blamed the deer for the chaos.

Question 7: Rewrite each sentence by changing it to the opposite voice (active ↔ passive).

- a) Jack was chased into the store by a wild deer
- b) The deer startled Jack near the entrance.

Write the answers below:

BYE !